More than 10,000 Investors to Attend Largest Global Investment Gathering to Hear Insights From Wall Street Experts

Sarasota, FL, January 23, 2007 – InterShow reported that attendance will exceed 10,000 investors at its 2007 World Money Show, being held February 7-10 in Orlando, Florida. The four day program includes over 120 world-renowned experts and features 320 educational workshops and more than 20 informative panel discussions. Part of the “annual check up” for investors includes several visits to the massive Exhibit Hall where both novice and seasoned investors or traders can browse and compare today’s most popular funds, ETFs, REITs and other public companies. Attendees “test drive” trading software and conduct research—among 350 top financial product and service firms. All conveniently located at The Gaylord Palms Resort™ in Orlando, Florida.

The 2007 US War Plan in Iraq, Economic Policy, and Outlook for Inflation

Former House Speaker and author of “Winning the Future” Newt Gingrich will head a roster of geopolitical experts who will forecast and analyze how changes in US foreign and economic policy will impact oil, currencies, equity and bond markets.

Major Research & Brokerage Firms Raise Recommended “Foreign Stocks” Allocation

This year’s conference focus is “Global Diversification”. Increasingly, US investors are opting to diversify their equity and bond holdings outside the U.S. Typical among global research firms, Standard & Poor’s is now recommending 20% “foreign stocks” in a diversified portfolio. At this year’s World Money Show there are 136 public companies participating—which is 55 (or 64%) more companies than last year, with most of them being global public companies. Additionally, seven of the countries participating have major exhibits and contributing panelists.

Keynote Speakers Include:

- Paul Kangas, Co-Anchor, Nightly Business Report
- Newt Gingrich, Former Speaker of the US House of Representatives, Winning the Future Under the Next Administration
- Robert McTeer, Former President, Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas, (served on FOMC with Greenspan and Bernanke): The US Economy and Monetary Policy in the Global Context
- Joe Battipaglia, Chief Investment Officer, Ryan, Beck & Co., LLC, How to Prosper in the Year Ahead!
- Ed Finn, Editor and President, Barron’s, Chairman and Editor-in-Chief, SmartMoney, What’s Ahead for Stocks, Bonds, Real Estate, and the Economy
- Robert Froehlich, Vice Chairman, DWS Scudder, Investment Megatrends
- Harry Dent, Founder and President, H.S. Dent Foundation, The Great Boom and Bust Ahead
- Jeffrey Everett, Chief Investment Officer – Retail, Templeton Global Equity Group, Basic Ingredients for Successful Global Investors
- Sam Stovall, Chief Investment Strategist, Standard & Poor’s, Profiting from Adages & Cycles (Sector Investing)

Record level pre-registration totals for the 2007 World Money Show include investors, traders, and financial advisors from 64 countries, which exceed last year's conference attendees from 34 countries.
