A Very Special Invitation...

I would like to extend my personal invitation for you to join a stellar faculty of investment experts on the 2nd Annual Oxford Club Caribbean Wealth Cruise, co-sponsored by Mt. Vernon Research and The Money Map Report, aboard the world's #1 cruise ship—the Crystal Symphony.

We've designed a special 7-day package for those unable to take the time for our longer cruises. Of course, those with time to spare can opt to go on the entire 11-day itinerary through the Panama Canal, ending in Costa Rica on February 3 instead.

You'll learn timely investment strategies from our esteemed faculty. This will be an ideal time to re-assess your portfolio allocations for the year ahead, especially given all the government spending and fiscal policy changes taking place today. Our team will present their specific forecasts for 2010 and how to play them.

I can't imagine a more enjoyable, insightful way to get ahead for 2010 than this fabulous investment seminar-at-sea with our investment team, on a beautiful ship with a great itinerary, while enjoying great camaraderie and relaxing in an atmosphere of unconditional six-star service. I hope to see you aboard!

Sincerely,

Julia C. Guth

Executive Director, The Oxford Club

The Best Investment Strategy for 'Shaky' Markets

A Wall Street veteran, Alexander Green, investment director of The Oxford Club, has over 20 years of experience as a research analyst, investment advisor, financial writer, and portfolio manager. Under his direction, The Oxford Club's portfolios have beaten the Wilshire 5000 Index by a margin of more than 3-to-1. The Hulbert Financial Digest has consistently ranked his stock selections for The Oxford Club in the top 10 of the nation overall, based on their five-year, risk-adjusted return. Alex is also chairman of Investment U, an Internet-based research and education service with over 300,000 readers. He writes and directs the Oxford Portfolio Update e-letter and three short-term trading services: The Momentum Alert, The Insider Alert, and The New Frontier Trader.

My Favorite (Contrarian) Investments For 2010

A former Wall Street consultant and analyst, Louis Basense, senior analyst for The Oxford Club, helped direct over $1 billion in institutional capital before joining forces with The Oxford Club. He specializes in non-traditional investments such as hedge funds, managed futures, takeovers, IPOs, and various other alternative investments. Louis edits three elite trading services: The Takeover Trader, The Long and Short Alert, and The Income Tripler. He is also the chief investment strategist for The White Cap Report, a newsletter that identifies and recommends companies—white caps—that hold the market's most aggressive growth profiles.

Fiscal Hangover—Why You Can't Afford to Dismiss China Now...Especially Now

Regarded as one of the world's leading experts on global investing, Keith Fitz-Gerald is investment director of the Money Map Press and the Money Map Report, and editor of The New China Trader, Geiger Index, and Time Trader. A frequent traveler who lives part time each year in Asia, Keith believes in "boots on the ground" when it comes to identifying opportunities. He's also a recognized pioneer of using non-linear theory for market prediction, risk management, and portfolio construction and recently was named a founding member of the Kenos Circle, a Vienna based think tank whose members work with institutional, corporate, and government clients worldwide to predict future economic and financial events.

Options Strategies That REALLY Make You Money

One of the country's foremost specialists in options trading, Karim Rahemtulla is investment director of Mt. Vernon Research, founder and editor of Strategic Income, The 400 Report, and The Smart Profits Report. Over the past three years, his covered options strategies have cashed in winners more than 75% of the time. He is also the investment director of Mt. Vernon Research's Xcelerated Profits Report, a newsletter devoted to making money using the safest stock and option strategies. His investment style focuses on risk mitigation through the use of innovative strategies geared simultaneously at growth and capital preservation. Karim also sits on the Advisory Panel for The Oxford Club, and is a frequent contributor to The Oxford Club Communiqué.

Three "Hypergrowth" Markets You Can't Afford to Miss

As the lead financial analyst for a Forbes top-50 private corporation and full-time trader of equities and equity derivatives, Robert Williams, executive director for The White Cap Report and The Oxford Club's editorial director, honed his skills. Recently profiled in the book Trade with Passion and Purpose, he is regarded as an authority in corporate finance, specifically in the analysis of financials and gauging the investment health of companies. Robert also served as an analyst for the endowment of a major academic institution.

Come Sail with Us

ON THE CRYSTAL SYMPHONY TO THESE COLORFUL PORTS

Saturday, January 23

MIAMI, FLORIDA

Blessed with year-round mild climates and unrivaled ocean access, America's southernmost resort city is also a sought-after international recreation destination. Replete with history, culture, and of course, nightlife and beaches, Miami is a must-see if you've never visited. This metropolitan area is influenced by Latin-American cultures, evidenced in the diversity of restaurants, arts, and festivals. Art and architecture buffs will revel in South Beach's Art Deco district, which houses over 800 Art-Deco style buildings.

Sunday, January 24, and Monday, January 25

SEMINARS-AT-SEA

Your journey begins, blending an educational experience with countless shipboard activities.

Exercise your mind during thought-provoking seminar sessions while meeting like-minded people in a relaxed, but elegant atmosphere.

Tuesday, January 26

TORTOLA, BRITISH VIRGIN ISLANDS

You'll begin the day by sailing into the famous horseshoe-shaped harbor of Road Town, capital of the British Virgin Islands, where most activities begin and end on the island of Tortola. Powdery white-sand beaches, lush green mountains, and a sheltered yacht-filled harbor characterize the island of Tortola, where the past of the West Indies meets the present of the British Virgin Islands. This island is a sailor's paradise, its wealth of inlets and harbors have been transformed into luxurious moorings for yachtsmen of the Caribbean.

Wednesday, January 27

ANTIGUA, WEST INDIES

Antigua's sunny climate and easy-going Caribbean ways are alluring attractions for visitors. St. Johns and English Harbour have been favorite haunts of the yachting set for years and no wonder. The dockyard has been faithfully preserved and is now a museum, as well as an active marina. During the 1780s this was home to Lord Admiral Horatio Nelson's invincible British fleet. Among its distinctive features, this island offers 365 different beaches—one for each day of the year!

Thursday, January 28

ST. LUCIA, WEST INDIES

Quaint bays, lush landscapes, and the delightful strains of the Creole language are part of the magic that radiates from St. Lucia. From a volatile settlement that endured numerous changes of ownership, this idyllic Windward Island has developed into a land rich with life and culture. Its dramatic twin coastal peaks, the Pitons, soar 2,000 feet up from the sea, sheltering magnificent rain forests, where wild orchids, giant ferns, and birds of paradise flourish. Brilliantly-plumed tropical birds abound, including endangered species like the indigenous St. Lucia parrot. Not to be missed is St. Lucia's Soufriere volcano, the world's only drive-in volcanic crater.

Friday, January 29

SEMINARS-AT-SEA

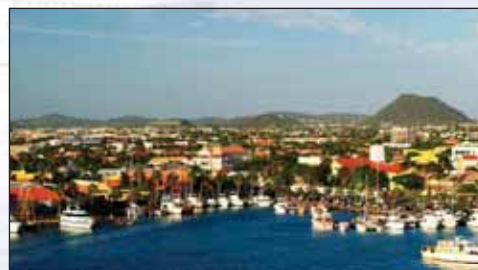

A glorious day at sea gives you a few more chances to enjoy the ship's luxurious amenities and relax in between seminar events.

We'll put it all together for you so that you'll go home not only relaxed and joyous, but ready to meet—and conquer—the financial challenges of the year ahead.

Saturday, January 30

ARUBA, DUTCH WEST INDIES

Combining Dutch efficiency and Caribbean charm, Aruba has become one of the most popular playgrounds in the Caribbean, boasting sophisticated resorts and casinos and breathtaking blue skies. Aruba's multi-cultural history is vivid in its sightseeing attractions. From Fort Zoutman's Museum and the William III Tower to the early 20th-century Dutch architecture on charming streets like Wilhelminastraat, the city of Oranjestad is perfect for a walking tour. In the countryside, undeciphered writings on the walls of the cave at Arikok National Park recall Aruba's earliest residents while the Church of Santa Anna, with its famous 115-year-old oak altar, represents more recent history.

The participation of The Oxford Club/Mt. Vernon Research is limited to the onboard educational seminars. The Oxford Club/Mt. Vernon Research assumes no responsibility or liability in connection with the services provided by the cruise line. Their reputation for meeting their obligations is distinguished, and they are very much looking forward to hosting this cruise, as are all their invited speakers. However, if they or any of their guest speakers are prevented, for reasons beyond their control, from speaking on this cruise, no claim can be processed against The Oxford Club/Mt. Vernon Research. In the unlikely event that a speaker cancellation occurs, the cruise-ship sailing and other onboard seminars will still take place and pre-registered passengers are encouraged to maintain their plans. However, if you decide to cancel, Crystal Cruises' cancellation policy (see right) will apply. Cruise participants may want to consider buying cancellation protection insurance. Oxford Club editors will speak broadly to seminar groups and will answer audience questions of a general nature in a panel discussion setting. Its editors are not licensed to render personalized investment advice and will not engage in one-on-one discussions with members regarding securities.
