Welcome to The 4th Annual Forex Trading Expo in Las Vegas!

Dear Fellow Trader:

Trading in foreign currency continues to explode in popularity among individuals. The ability to focus on one or two currency pairs and become an expert on the movement and momentum of just those is very attractive. There are thousands of products to trade these days—so much so that it can be overwhelming. And in a world where global trade impacts everything, forex is the perfect way to take advantage of trends and opportunities available around the clock.

But how do you learn the latest trading strategies? Which chart patterns are working well now and what markets should you be watching as a leading indicator? The answers to these questions and many others can be found in Las Vegas in September at the Forex Trading Expo! For two full days and during a pre-Expo day, many of the best currency traders in the country will be attending sessions, talking with fellow traders in the hallways, and becoming better decision makers by learning what's working now.

As a "market entrepreneur" yourself, you know that having the right knowledge and trade-management skills can make all the difference. Two traders, if given the exact same instructions and entry point, can have dramatically different outcomes simply because one knew what to trade and at what price to exit. Knowing what to trade is only part of the "game." Ask any successful trader and they will tell you that learning to manage a trade, once executed, is probably the most critical aspect of their success.

Successful trades lead to more confidence, and a confident trader is one who can consistently draw profits from the markets. So join thousands of your fellow forex traders this fall and pick up one or two new ideas you can use in your own trading style and strategy. One or two additional profitable trades a month is all you need to make a huge difference in your long-term success as a currency trader.

I look forward to meeting you at Mandalay Bay in Las Vegas this September 12-13!

To your trading success,

Tim Bourquin, Co-Founder
Forex Trading Expo

P.S. If you uncover just ONE new method or strategy that allows you to make just ONE more profitable trade per month, it will have been well worth your time and effort to attend!

Friday, September 12

8:45 am – 9:30 am

Keynote Address:

Opportunities in Emerging-Market Currencies

How will trends in the emerging markets affect global currency markets? How will the declining

US dollar and rising commodity prices create new trading possibilities over the coming months? Understanding cause and effect in the forex market is critical, especially when dealing with more fragile, developing currencies. This affords you the chance to master a particular pair or currency, a powerful way of becoming a consistent FX trader, and there is no more effective way of accomplishing this than to learn about an economy and its currency before it fully develops.

Stephen Leach, Managing Director and Economist in Citigroup's FX Group, will discuss some of the market's emerging currencies and provide insight into important trends in emerging markets, which will help you fine-tune your trading strategies and potentially highlight new opportunities. There will also be time for Q&A.

Friday, September 12

4:15 pm – 5:45 pm

Networking Reception

Meet and mingle with other currency traders, exhibitors, and speakers after a productive day at the Expo. Network and "talk shop" with fellow market enthusiasts while enjoying drinks and hors d'oeuvres.

Coaching Yourself for Trading Success

As a trading coach for professional traders in proprietary group, hedge fund, and investment bank settings,

Dr. Brett Steenbarger draws upon cognitive, interpersonal, behavioral, and solution-focused methods to help traders make better decisions under conditions of risk, uncertainty, and emotional arousal. In this keynote address, he uses examples from his practice to show traders how they can use these techniques for themselves and become their own trading coaches. Among the skills Dr. Steenbarger will illustrate will be methods for reducing performance anxiety and pressure; techniques for changing patterns of negative self talk; ways of structuring daily trading to improve self-confidence; and techniques for overcoming frustration and impulsive decision-making. The goal of this session will be to give you concrete strategies that you can use to improve your trading performance.

Assessing Currency Dynamics in Today's Uncertain World

SPONSORED

As the global market crisis persists and the Federal Reserve resorts to stabilizing measures not seen since the Great Depression, commodity and currency markets have broken away from all conventional measures. Gold broke above $1000 per ounce, oil shattered $100 per barrel, and the US dollar breached below 100 yen and 1 Swiss franc. Is this an overshoot before we revert to more familiar levels, or is it the beginning of a long drawn out decline for the US currency? Ashraf Laidi predicted the 2007 Federal rate cuts six months before they materialized, called the dollar peak of mid Q1 2008, and alerted clients about the USD/CHF breaking below parity. Ashraf will now offer his rest of year forecast for currencies, gold, interest rates, and the global economy.

Important Information for Attendees: Through its seminars, conferences, and expos, the Producer of this Event makes available to the attendee a variety of independent sources that offer trading and investment advice and related services and products. This forum provides a unique opportunity for the attendee to become informed about trading and investment choices, to hear respected market specialists, to question speakers and exhibitors, to observe, evaluate, and compare. The Producer does not itself offer, sponsor or promote, directly or indirectly, any investment, trade, trading or investment advice, or information on any product or service offered by speakers or exhibitors. The Producer receives no fees or commissions from exhibitors based on their sales. Every trader and investor should consider all advice and all offerings of products and services on their own merits and for suitability to the individual's personal needs and circumstances.

The Producer has no responsibility or liability for the advice, offerings, or other actions of exhibitors or speakers. Exhibitors and speakers are independent business people or entities not subject to the Producer's direction or control. The Producer has no standing and no means or processes by which we can adequately monitor or control an exhibitor's or a speaker's oral or written representations. Accordingly, every investor or trader should undertake such due diligence investigation as he or she feels is necessary for any contemplated investment or trade. Nor can we investigate transactions by exhibitors or evaluate the merits of any dispute with an exhibitor. In these circumstances we suggest that if any dispute arises with an exhibitor or a speaker it should be pursued directly with the exhibitor or speaker and if the situation warrants use of any available remedy under appropriate law or regulations should be considered.

The Producer strives to provide equal opportunity to all qualified persons to participate in this Event. To further that objective, the Producer will work to provide reasonable accommodations under the Americans with Disabilities Act for any person requesting accommodation, either in writing or by telephone, at least ten (10) working days prior to the first day of the Event. The Producer will make a reasonable effort to accommodate any request. However, due to the difficulty of providing some types of accommodations, the Producer cannot guarantee accommodation, especially late requests made without ten (10) working days' prior notice.

High-Impact Forex Trading Strategies Based on Technical Tools, Specific Price Patterns, and Proprietary Indicators

Thursday, September 11
1:30 pm – 5:30 pm

Professional trader and author of several top trading books, John Person, will share with you how to build a daily forex trading plan based on the concepts behind his highly accurate pivot point moving average system. This session will include interactive case studies on the euro, the yen, and the British pound to reinforce key trading and analytical skills. This session will go over how to identify a trend directional bias or if there is an upcoming change in market direction using a specialized moving average method. Successful traders all have something in common, they wait patiently for the right setups to develop and then trade off the specific triggers. Waiting for those setups is just part of the battle. This session will teach you special setups that have a statistically (back tested) high frequency of occurring with amazing results. You will also learn how to spot and trade these high-probability setups from order entry to stop placement. John will also reveal techniques that will help you identify whether you should be buying dips or selling rallies based on the market bias and these specific set-ups and price patterns. These patterns are specific proprietary patterns that John has identified and used from his 30 years of trading that works in all time frames for day or swing traders.

This four-hour session will cover in full detail:

- The correct way to use pivot points specifically tailored for the forex markets, including John's proprietary filtering method for selecting the right support and resistance levels.
- How to spot high-impact trading opportunities using specific price patterns in certain time periods in the fx markets.
- The steps John uses to spot the setups and triggers he looks for in the euro and British pound.
- How to detect a day-to-day sentiment bias based on market internals derived from a proprietary moving average component.
- When to identify trading opportunities and under what conditions that you should be selling against swing highs and buying against swing lows.
- Why end-of-day data combined with specific proprietary indicators will give you the edge for day trades in the next session.
- Three proprietary high probability trade setups that work well for all the major pairs, in all time frames.
- When to enter a trade, where to place stop loss orders, how, and when and where to trail stop orders for bigger profits using John's proprietary LCC method.
